Non-teaching days

Schools are open to pupils for 190 days in a school year. In addition, schools must identify 5 non teaching days or the equivalent thereof. Three non- teaching days should be taken within the school term dates specified above and must take account of school closures (where appropriate) to accommodate local, European or Parliamentary elections. Schools may negotiate the timing of the remaining two days or the equivalent thereof.
Non- teaching days cannot be brought forward from one academic year to the next.

3. The timing of non-teaching days is at the discretion of each school and the dates of non-teaching days are not necessarily common across all schools. Schools are closed to pupils on non-teaching days. Individual schools will notify parents of the dates of their non-teaching days.

Schools re-open on Monday, 7 September 2015
