

The Importance of Worship

For religious believers, the aim of worship is to show that god has more worth than anything or anyone else. Religious freedom is the right to choose what you believe and which religion to follow.

- ❖ All people of faith worship, but these people may worship in different ways.
- ❖ They may care for sacred places in a certain way and have special days and festivals.
- ❖ The actions of faith communities can affect the wider world.
- ❖ Special artefacts can be found in many religions
- ❖ Some forms of worship are common to more than one faith.
- ❖ Worship can take place in many places.

ARTEFACTS

chanani	cloth canopy
chauri	ceremonial whisk kippah	male prayer cap
menorah	seven branched candlestick mezuzah	sacred scroll
musalla	prayer mat
puja tray	tray used to hold items during worship qur'an	sacred book of Muslims rosary	beads used in prayer rupa	symbols used in Buddhism subha	prayer beads
tallith	prayer shawl topi	traditional head covering torah	sacred Jewish text trptych	set of images
yad	pointer

Key Vocabulary

worship value diversity worth freedom sacred shrine symbol gurdwara shrine ritual synagogue