

Enquiry Based Learning Story - Part 2

Today we research wheat using the ipads, we used search engines and websites to help us find some information and we practised telling our friends the information we had learned before writing it.

