

We launched our Enquiry Based
Learning with a class
discussion about
'celebrations'

[illegible]

How do you celebrate?

"In June is Birthday time"
Amy

"In June many things"
Lillian

"We celebrate the Fourth
outside the tent"
Dorothy

"I find nothing special in the month"
Lillian

"Celebrate the Fourth"
James

"I find April is Good time"

"We have a Christmas day"
Lillian

We learnt about
Bonfire night,
Remembrance
Day, Eid, Diwali,
Hanukkah, Christmas and birthday
celebrations...

Demos - gestures of signs

We showed about 15 finger printed signs.

These signs were:
 - empty pockets - "empty"
 - "Yes, I want this" - "yes"
 - "No, I don't" - "no"
 - "I'm sorry" - "sorry"
 - "I'm happy" - "happy"
 - "I'm sad" - "sad"
 - "I'm angry" - "angry"
 - "I'm tired" - "tired"
 - "I'm hungry" - "hungry"
 - "I'm thirsty" - "thirsty"
 - "I'm hot" - "hot"
 - "I'm cold" - "cold"

We also did some signs that we had made for the children to use when they were in the hospital.

Remembrance day

to see what we have done for remembrance
day

Judaism

We learn it in Book 1000

We learnt about Hanukkah
in before Sunday 25th November 2012
4 days Monday 4th December 2012
to Festival of Lights

A synagogue is the Jewish place of worship. Synagogue means
'bringing together' or 'assembly'.

We interviewed a party planner to find out all about her career.

We thought of questions to ask Lucy

We used Teams
to interview

PIC•COLLAGE

We revisited our original question...

Every child could offer a suggestion referring to the celebrations we had learnt about.
