

Geography – Year 2 – Local area

Scotswood

Scotswood is a suburb of Newcastle upon Tyne. It is in the West end of Newcastle. There are shops, houses, doctors, dentists, schools and churches in Scotswood. Scotswood Bridge goes over the River Tyne.

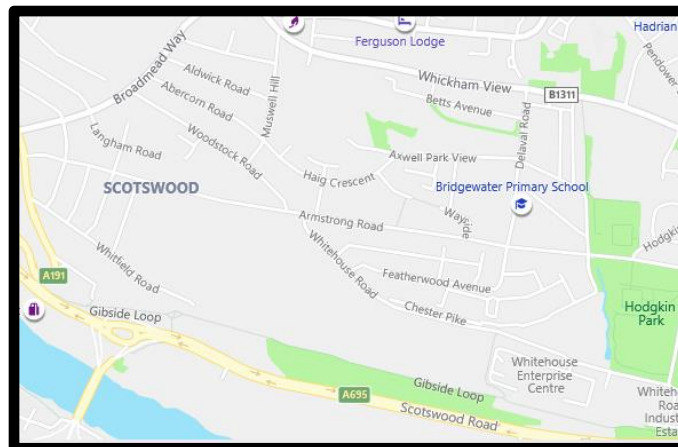

The park in Scotswood is called Hodgkin Park.

Scotswood Bridge going over the River Tyne.

Newcastle

Newcastle is a city in England. England is a country in the United Kingdom.

Key Vocabulary

City - A city is a large town where people work and live.

River - A large stream of water flowing towards a sea, ocean or lake.

Suburb - An area of houses that are more spread out than the city centre.

Street - A piece of land with buildings running along the sides.

Bridge - A structure that links two places, usually over a river.

Hill - a natural raised area of land, not as tall or rocky as a mountain.

Park - An area of land that is set aside for the public to use and enjoy.