

Islam- The Qur'an

We will be exploring and investigating:

How the first Qur'an was revealed and how the prophet Muhammad passed on the message he heard from Allah.

Why the Qur'an is written in Arabic and that you read Arabic from right to left.

How many Surah's (chapters) there are in the Qur'an and how Hadith's help to explain them and also what Muhammad said.

How and why Muslims treat the Qur'an with respect.

What lessons people can learn from the Qur'an and if those messages are still important today.

How some people can learn the whole of the Qur'an off by heart and are given the name Hafiz.

Where the Qur'an can be read and why reading it is so important to Muslims

How the Qur'an teaches Muslims how they should speak, act and treat others.

Key Vocabulary

Jibril	The angel send by Allah to reveal the message of the Qur'an
Surah	A chapter of the Qur'an
Hafiz	A person who has learnt the whole of the Qur'an off by heart.
Hadith	A book that helps to explain the Qur'an and the saying of the prophet Muhammad.
Reverence	To treat something or someone with respect.
Principles	A rule, belief or idea that guides you.
Recite	To be able to say something out aloud that you have learnt off by heart.
Apply	To be able to use something you have learnt in your everyday life.

